

ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES & POLICY INTERNSHIP

POSITION TITLE: SEATRUST INSTITUTE

RESEARCH INTERNSHIP

SeaTrust Institute internships allow selected undergraduate and graduate candidates to gain insight into the work of both local and international environmental processes, collaborate with peers, and contribute to the knowledge used by stakeholders, leaders, and United Nations regimes to address complex environmental issues.

LOCATION	Primarily or totally virtual
NAME AND DESCRIPTION OF ORGANIZATION	SeaTrust Institute Environmental Adaptation, Research, Education and Policy for Global Communities; Nonprofit 501c3 USA
DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF INTERNS	SeaTrust Institute seeks motivated research and educational interns to assist

Current research internships are available for students to engage with team members on specific research projects at SeaTrust Institute.	with our research program content for local and international projects. Interns support our research programs through engaging with our interdisciplinary framework and using tools for data collection and analysis, translation of information to policy, data visualization and modeling, evaluation, and other approaches to support resilience development research. For more information on the content covered in our internships, please visit our internship page: http://www.seatrustinstitute.org/internship.html
Takeaways from a SeaTrust Institute Internship	CHALLENGING, MEANINGFUL WORK <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Practical application of environmental knowledge ● Developing a policy voice ● Global policy interaction ● Inclusion in research and policy activities ● Direct access to professionals in the field BEYOND TASKS: BE PART OF OUR TEAM <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Good references ● Networking opportunities ● Flexible work schedule ● Guidance & Feedback ● Interaction and team support ● Creative opportunities to contribute to global resilience
SKILLS REQUIRED FOR POSITION	Interest in environmental science or policy/social issues; basic computer skills such as Microsoft and Google apps; English language proficiency; internet access; basic to advanced research skills; comfortable working collaboratively in a virtual environment. Additional desirable skills for current research projects include but are not limited to proficiency with ArcGis, R,

	Adobe Creative Cloud applications particularly design and video skills, HTML coding and SQL.
WHO WILL BE THE INTERN'S SUPERVISOR	Overseeing all internships is CEO and Senior Researcher Dr. Lynn Wilson; Projects are led by Jennifer Mwangi, Program Manager and one of our Research Leads.
HOURS AND TERM OF APPOINTMENT	Hours are flexible so long as meetings in online platforms can be attended (general SeaTrust meetings are evenings, EST). Interns may work in any or all quarters, Spring, Summer and Fall for at least the minimum (three months). Longer commitment periods engage interns in larger projects.
APPLICATION INFORMATION	To Apply, send all materials to seatrust@seatrustinstitute.org. Include in your package the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CV/Resume • Attach application letter that includes environmental and educational background and expectations of the internship opportunity • Academic credentials (unofficial transcript) or proof of professional standing for all internships, and advisor support letter for credit internships
FOR MORE INFORMATION OR TO APPLY, CONTACT	Dr. Lynn Wilson, Executive Director/CEO lwilson@seatrustinstitute.org General inquiries: seatrust@seatrustinstitute.org